Do you know why all jokes about blondes are so short?
So men can understand them... !

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~*~~

A blonde calls her boyfriend and says, "Please come over here and help me...I have a killer jigsaw puzzle, and I can't figure out how to get it started."

Her boyfriend asks, "What is it supposed to be when it's finished?" The blonde says, "According to the picture on the box, it's a ROOSTER." Her boyfriend decides to go over and help with the puzzle. She lets him in and shows him where she has the puzzle spread all over the table.

He studies the pieces for a moment, then looks at the box, then turns to her and says, "First of all, no matter what we do, we're not going to be able to assemble these pieces into anything resembling a rooster."

He held her hand and said, "Second, I'd advise you to relax. Let's have a cup of coffee, then" he sighed, "let's put all these Corn Flakes back in the box."

An Icelander was granted one single wish from God: He asked "I want a road across the Atlantic so we Icelanders can drive back and forth to Europe."

God told him: "That is too much too ask. Find something easier".

So the man asked: "Please explain female intuition to me"

God replied: "About that highway: Should it be 2 or 4 lanes?"

I rang up my local swimming baths. I said "Is that the local swimming baths?"
The man said, "It depends on where you're calling from."

An old woman came into her doctor's office and confessed to an embarrassing problem. "I have Flatulence all the time, doctor" she said. "But they're Soundless, and they have no Odor. In fact, since I've been here, I've passed wind no less than twenty times. What can I do?"

"Here's a prescription, Mrs. Smith. Take these pills three times a day for seven days and come back and see me in a week."

Next week an upset Mrs. Smith marched into the Doctors office. "Doctor, I don't know what was in those pills, but the problem is worse! I'm passing wind just as often, but now they smell terrible! What do you have to say for yourself?"

"Calm down, Mrs. Smith" said the doctor soothingly. "Now that we've fixed your Sinuses, we'll work on your Hearing!!"

~~~~~~~~~~

"Is it true" the woman asked her doctor, "that the medication you prescribed has to be taken for the rest of my life?"
"Yes, I'm afraid so", the doctor told her.

There was a moment of silence before the woman continued, "I'm wondering then, just how serious my condition is. This prescription is marked "NO REFILLS."

A Blonde with two very red ears went to her doctor, who asked her what happened. "I was ironing a shirt and the phone rang" she said" but instead of picking up the phone, I accidentally picked up the iron and stuck in to my ear"

"So what happened to your other ear?" asked the doctor.
"The person rang back again..."

A man goes to his doctor for a complete check-up. He hasn't been feeling well and wants to find out if he's ill.

After examination the doctor comes out with the results: "I'm afraid I have some bad news. You're dying and you don't have much time"
"Oh no, that's terrible. How long have I got?" the man asks.

"Ten..." say the doctor.
"Ten? Ten what? Months? Weeks? What?" he asks desperately.
"Ten, Nine, eight, seven....."

There are a lot of dumb people out there.

The wheels spinning, but the hamsters dead.
The cheese slid off his cracker.
Doesn't have all his dogs on one leash.
Her sewing machine is out of thread
A few beers short of a six-pack
A sandwich short of a picnic
He fell out of the stupid tree and hit every branch on the way down
Not the sharpest knife in the drawer
The lights are on, but nobody's home
A few bricks shy of a full load
Will spend all his life pushing doors marked "pull"
Not the brightest crayon in the box
If she had an ounce of brains she would fall over top-heavy
If stupidity was music, he would be a brass band.
If you gave her a penny for intelligence, you would get change back
She would trip over a cordless phone
If she spoke her mind, she'd probably be speechless

The man was so obviously inebriated that he could barely walk. He stumbled around the parking lot for a few minutes. After trying his keys on five other cars, he finally sat in his car and turned the lights on, then off, wipers on, then off.

Finally, when he was the last car in the car park, he pulled out onto the road and started to drive away. The Patrolman who was waiting for this, turned on his lights and pulled him over.

He administered the breathalyzer test and was shocked when the man tested at 0.00.

The patrolman was dumbfounded. "This equipment must be broken!" he exclaimed.
"I doubt it," said the driver, "Tonight I am the Designated Decoy."

A young blonde woman is distraught because she fears her husband is having an affair, so she goes to a gun shop and buys a handgun.

The next day she comes home to find her husband in bed with a beautiful redhead. She grabs the gun and holds it to her own head.

The husband jumps out of bed, begging and pleading with her not to shoot herself.
Hysterically the blonde responds, "Shut up...you're next!"

Excerpts From "A Cat's Guide To Human Beings"

1. Introduction: Why Do We Need Humans?

So you've decided to get yourself a human being. In doing so, you've joined the millions of other cats who have acquired these strange and often frustrating creatures. There will be any number of times, during the course of your association with humans, when you will wonder why you have bothered to grace them with your presence.

What's so great about humans, anyway? Why not just hang around with other cats? Our greatest philosophers have struggled with this question for centuries, but the answer is actually rather simple:

THEY HAVE OPPOSABLE THUMBS.

Which makes them the perfect tools for such tasks as opening doors, getting the lids off of cat food cans, changing television stations and other activities that we, despite our other obvious advantages, find difficult to do ourselves. True, chimps, orangutans and lemurs also have opposable thumbs, but they are nowhere as easy to train.

2. How And When to Get Your Human's Attention

Humans often erroneously assume that there are other, more important activities than taking care of your immediate needs, such as conducting business, spending time with their families or even sleeping.

Though this is dreadfully inconvenient, you can make this work to your advantage by pestering your human at the moment it is the busiest. It is usually so flustered that it will do whatever you want it to do, just to get you out of its hair. Not coincidentally, human teenagers follow this same practice.

Here are some tried and true methods of getting your human to do what you want:

Sitting on paper: An oldie but a goodie. If a human has paper in front of it, chances are good it's something they assume is more important than you. They will often offer you a snack to lure you away. Establish your supremacy over this wood pulp product at every opportunity. This practice also works well with computer keyboards, remote controls, car keys and small children.

Waking your human at odd hours: A cat's "golden time" is between 3:30 and 4:30 in the morning. If you paw at your human's sleeping face during this time, you have a better than even chance that it will get up and, in an incoherent haze, do exactly what you want.

You may actually have to scratch deep sleepers to get their attention; remember to vary the scratch site to keep the human from getting suspicious.

3. Punishing Your Human Being

Sometimes, despite your best training efforts, your human will stubbornly resist bending to your whim. In these extreme circumstances, you may have to punish your human. Obvious punishments, such as scratching furniture or eating household plants, are likely to backfire; the unsophisticated humans are likely to misinterpret the activities and then try to discipline YOU. Instead, we offer these subtle but nonetheless effective alternatives:

- Use the cat box during an important formal dinner.
- Stare impassively at your human while it is attempting a romantic interlude.
- Stand over an important piece of electronic equipment and feign a hairball attack.
- After your human has watched a particularly disturbing horror film, stand by the hall closet and then slowly back away, hissing and yowling.
- While your human is sleeping, lie on its face.

4. Rewarding Your Human: Should Your Gift Still Be Alive?

The cat world is divided over the etiquette of presenting humans with the thoughtful gift of a recently disemboweled animal. Some believe that humans prefer these gifts already dead, while others maintain that humans enjoy a slowly expiring cricket or rodent just as much as we do, given their jumpy and playful movements in picking the creatures up after they've been presented.

After much consideration of the human psyche, we recommend the following:

cold blooded animals (large insects, frogs, lizards, garden snakes and the occasional earthworm) should be presented dead, while warm blooded animals (birds, rodents, your neighbor's Pomeranian) are better still living. When you see the expression on your human's face, you'll know it's worth it.

5. How Long Should You Keep Your Human?

You are only obligated to your human for one of your lives. The other eight are up to you. We recommend mixing and matching, though in the end, most humans (at least the ones that are worth living with) are pretty much the same. But what do you expect?

They're humans, after all. Opposable thumbs will only take you so far.

Jack was going to be married to Jill, so his father sat him down for a little fireside chat.

He says, "Jack let me tell you something. On my Wedding night in our honeymoon suite, I took off my pants and handed them to your mother, and I said, here try these on." So she did and said, "These just don't fit."

So I replied, "...Exactly. I wear the pants in this family and always will. Ever since that night we have never had any problems."

"Hmmm," says Jack. He thinks that might be a good thing to try.

So on his honeymoon Jack takes off his pants and says to Jill, "Here try these on."

So she does and says, "These just won't fit."
So Jacks says, "Exactly. I wear the pants in this family and I always will, and I don't want you to ever forget that."

Then Jill takes off her pants and hands them to Jack and says, "Here you try on mine. So he does and says, "I can't get into these."

So Jill says, "Exactly. And if you don't change your attitude, you never will."

It seems an old fisherman stumbled across a talking frog while out fishing one day.

The frog said: "I'll turn into a ravishing beauty and fulfill your every desire, if only you'll kiss me." The fisherman scooped up the frog and put him in his pocket.

Later on, at a bar, he pulled the frog out and set the frog next to his beer. When the bartender overheard the frog repeat the offer, he asked the fisherman what he was waiting for.

The fisherman replied:
"At my age, I'd rather have a talking frog."

My colleague and I were making a sales call to a rural church. At the end of our presentation to the church committee, the chairman knelt before the altar.

After about a minute of silent prayer, he returned and announced in a solemn tone, "the Lord tells me we should wait a while on this purchase." My colleague responded by walking to the altar and kneeling down. Then he returned to the group, looked at the chairman, and declared, "He wants to talk with your again."

Dear Abby,
I have been engaged for almost a year. I am to be married next month. My fiancée's mother is not only very attractive but really great and understanding.

She is putting the entire wedding together and invited me to her place to go over the invitation list because it had grown a bit beyond what we had expected it to be.

When I got to her place we reviewed the list and trimmed it down to just under a hundred...then she floored me.

She said that in a month I would be a married man and that before that happened, she wanted to have s-e-x with me.

Then she just stood up and walked to her bedroom and on her way said that I knew where the front door was if I wanted to leave.

I stood there for a few moments, and finally decided that I knew exactly how to deal with this situation. I headed straight out the front door.

There, leaning against my car was her husband, my father-in-law to be. He was smiling. He explained that they just wanted to be sure I was a good kid and would be true to their little girl. I shook his hand and he congratulated me on passing their little test.

Abby, should I tell my fiancée what her parents did, and that I thought their "little test" was asinine and insulting to my character?

Or should I keep the whole thing to myself including the fact that the reason I was walking out to my car was to get a condom?

Signed,
Perplexed

THE EMAIL "FORWARDER'S" 12 STEP PROGRAM –

1. I will NOT get bad luck, lose my friends, or lose my mailing lists if I DON'T forward an email!
2. I will NOT hear any music or see a taco dog, if I do forward an e-mail.
3. Bill Gates is NOT going to send me money, Victoria Secret doesn't know anything about a gift certificate they're supposed to send me.
4. Ford will NOT give me a 50% discount even if I forward my e-mail to more than 50 people!
5. I will NEVER receive gift certificates, coupons, or freebies from Coca Cola, Cracker Barrel, Old Navy, or anyone else if I send an e-mail to 10 people.
6. I will NEVER see a pop-up window if I forward an e-mail ...NEVER-NEVER!!
7. There is NO SUCH THING as an e-mail tracking program, and I am not STUPID enough to think that someone will send me $100 for forwarding an e-mail to 10 or more people!
8. There is NO kid with cancer through the Make-a-Wish program in England collecting anything! He did when he was 7 years old. He is now cancer free and 35 years old and DOESN'T WANT ANY MORE POST CARDS, or GET-WELL CARDS.
9. The government does not have a bill in Congress called 901B (or whatever they named it this week) that, if passed, will enable them to charge us 5 cents for every e-mail we send.
10. There will be NO cool dancing, singing, waving, colorful flowers, characters, or program that I will receive immediately after I forward an e-mail. NONE, ZIP, ZERO, NADA!
11. The American Red Cross will NOT donate 50 cents to certain individual dying of some never-heard-of disease for every e-mail address I send this to. The American Red Cross RECEIVES donations.
12. And finally, I WILL NOT let others guilt me into sending things by telling me I am not their friend or that I don't believe in Jesus Christ. If God wants to send me a message, I believe the bushes in my yard will burn before He picks up a PC to pass it on!

Now, repeat this to yourself until you have it memorized, and send it along to at least 5 of your friends before the next full moon or you will surely be constipated for the next three months and all of your hair will fall out!

Where Do I Come From?

'Where did I come from, Mum?' asked a six year old. Mum had been dreading the question but decided against euphemism.

She gave the little boy a very frank, candid description beginning with the sex act and concluding with the dramas of the delivery room. She then awaited his reaction.

I just wondered,' said the child. 'The boy who sits in front of me comes from New Zealand.'

Haikisoft

In Japan, it is said they have replaced the impersonal and unhelpful Microsoft Error messages with Haiku poetry messages. Haiku poetry has strict construction rules.

Each poem has only three lines, 17 syllables: five syllables in the first line, seven in the second, five in the third.

Haiku is used to communicate a timeless message often achieving a wistful, yearning and powerful insight through extreme brevity - the essence of Zen:

Your file was so big. It might be very useful. But now it is gone.
The Website you seek Cannot be located, but Countless more exist.
Chaos reigns within. Reflect, repent, and reboot. Order shall return.
Program aborting: Close all that you have worked on. You ask far too much.

Windows NT crashed. I am the Blue Screen of Death. No one hears your screams.

Yesterday it worked. Today it is not working. Windows is like that.
First snow, then silence. This thousand-dollar screen dies So beautifully.
With searching comes loss and the presence of absence: "My Novel" not found.

The Tao that is seen Is not the true Tao-until You bring fresh toner.
Stay the patient course. Of little worth is your ire. The network is down.
A crash reduces Your expensive computer To a simple stone.
Three things are certain: Death, taxes and lost data. Guess which has occurred.

You step in the stream, But the water has moved on. This page is not here.

Out of memory. We wish to hold the whole sky, But we never will.
Having been erased, The document you're seeking Must now be retyped.
Serious error. All shortcuts have disappeared. Screen. Mind. Both are blank.

Cuckoo Clock

The other night I was invited out for a night with "the girls." I told my husband that I would be home by midnight, "I promise!" Well, the hours passed and the margaritas went down way too easy.

Around 3 a.m., a bit blitzed, I headed for home. Just as I got in the door, the cuckoo clock in the hall started up and cuckooed 3 times. Quickly, realizing my husband would probably wake up, I cuckooed another 9 times.

I was really proud of myself for coming up with such a quick-witted solution (even when totally smashed), in order to escape a possible conflict with him.

The next morning my husband asked me what time I got in, and I told him Midnight. He didn't seem disturbed at all. Then he said, "We need a new cuckoo clock."

When I asked him why, he said, "Well, last night our clock cuckooed three times, then said, "Oh, sh*t," cuckooed 4 more times, cleared its throat, cuckooed another 3 times, giggled, cuckooed twice more, and then tripped over the cat and f*rted.

Microsoft -v- General Motors:

For all of us who feel only the deepest love and affection for the way computers have enhanced our lives, read on.

At a recent computer expo (COMDEX), Bill Gates reportedly compared the computer industry with the auto industry and stated, "If GM had kept up with technology like the computer industry has, we would all be driving $25 cars that got 1,000 miles to the gallon."

In response to Bill's comments, General Motors issued a press release stating: If GM had developed technology like Microsoft, we would all be driving cars with the following characteristics:

1. For no reason whatsoever, your car would crash twice a day.
2. Every time they repainted the lines in the road, you would have to buy a new car.
3. Occasionally, your car would die on the freeway for no reason. You would have to pull over to the side of the road, close all of the windows, shut off the car, restart it, and reopen the windows before you could continue. For some reason you would simply accept this.
4. Occasionally, executing a maneuver such as a left turn would cause your car to shut down and refuse to restart, in which case you would have to reinstall the engine.

5. Macintosh would make a car that was powered by the sun, was reliable, five times as fast and twice as easy to drive - but would run on only five percent of the roads.
6. The oil, water temperature, and alternator warning lights would all be replaced by a single "This Car Has Performed An Illegal Operation" warning light.
7. The airbag system would ask, "Are you sure?" before deploying.
8. Occasionally, for no reason whatsoever, your car would lock you out and refuse to let you in until you simultaneously lifted the door handle, turned the key and grabbed hold of the radio antenna.
9. Every time a new car was introduced, car buyers would have to learn how to drive all over again because none of the controls would operate in the same manner as the old car.
10. You'd have to press the "Start" button to turn the engine off.

It's the spring of 1957 and Bobby goes to pick up his date. He's a pretty hip guy with his own car. When he goes to the front door, the girl's father answers and invites him in.

"Carrie's not ready yet, so why don't you have a seat?" he says.
 "That's cool," says Bobby.
 Carrie's father asks Bobby what they're planning to do. Bobby replies, politely, that they will probably just go to the soda shop or a movie.
 Carrie's father responds,
 "Why don't you two go out and screw, I hear all the kids are doing it." Naturally, this comes as quite a surprise to Bobby. So, he asks Carrie's father to repeat it.
 "Yeah," says Carrie's father, "Carrie really likes to screw; she'll screw all night if we let her!"
 Well, this just made Bobby's eyes light up, and his plan for the evening was beginning to look pretty good.
 A few minutes later, Carrie comes downstairs in her little poodle skirt, and announces that she's ready to go.

Almost breathless with anticipation, Bobby escorts his date out the front door.
About 20 minutes later, Carrie rushes back into the house, slams the door behind her, and screams at her father,
"Dammit daddy! The dance is called THE TWIST!!"

Oh! Don't you just love those "blonde" jokes?

The Genie

A blonde, a brunette and a redhead were stuck on an island for many, many years until one day they found a magic lamp.
They rubbed it hard and out popped a genie. He said that he could only give three wishes so since there were three girls, each would get one wish.
The redhead went first. "I hate it here. It is too hot and boring. I want to go home!" "Okay," replied the genie. And off she went.
Then the brunette went. "I miss my family, my friends and relatives. I want to go home, too!!" And off she went.
The blonde started crying and said, "I wish my friends were back here!"

True Blonde

A young brunette goes into the doctor's office and says that her body hurts wherever she touches it.
"Impossible," says the doctor. "Show me."
She takes her finger and pushes her elbow and screams in agony.
She pushes her knee and screams, pushes her ankle and screams and so it goes on, everywhere she touches makes her scream.
The doctor says, "You're not really a brunette, are you?"
She says, "No, I'm really a blonde."
"I thought so," he says. "Your finger is broken."

Jigsaw Puzzle

A group of blondes walk into a bar. One of the women tells the bartender to line up a row of drinks for all of them.
The gals lift their glasses and toast, "Here's to 51 days!" and they proceed to down their drinks.
Once again, they tell the bartender to "line 'em up", and once again they toast 51 days and down their drinks.
The bartender says, "I don't get it. Why in the world are you toasting 51 days?"
One of the blondes explains, "We just finished a jigsaw puzzle. It had written on the box '2-4 years,' but we finished it in 51 days!"

Swimming Race

A blonde, brunette and a redhead had a breaststroke swimming race across the English Channel.
The brunette came in first, the redhead came in second and the blonde never finished. When the blonde got in the lifeboat she said,
"I don't want to be a tattletale or anything, but I say the other two used their arms."

First Class

On a plane bound for New York the flight attendant approached a blonde sitting in the first class section and requested that she move to the coach section since she did not have a first class ticket.

The blonde replied, "I'm blonde, I'm beautiful, I'm going to New York, and I'm not moving."

Not wanting to argue with a customer, the flight attendant asked the co-pilot to speak with her.

He went to talk with the woman asking her to please move out of the first class section.

Again, the blonde replied, "I'm blonde, I'm beautiful, I'm going to New York, and I'm not moving."

The co-pilot returned to the cockpit and asked the captain what he should do.

The captain said, "I'm married to a blonde, and I know how to handle this."

He went to the first class section and whispered in the blonde's ear.

She immediately jumped up and ran to the coach section mumbling to herself, "Why didn't anyone just say so."

Surprised, the flight attendant and the co-pilot asked what he said to her that finally convinced her to move from her seat.

The pilot replied, "I told her the first class section wasn't going to New York."

Horseback Riding

A blonde decides to try horseback riding, even though she has had no lessons or prior experience.

She mounts the horse unassisted and the horse immediately springs into motion.

It gallops along at a steady and rhythmic pace, but the blonde begins to slip from the saddle.

In terror, she grabs for the horse's mane, but cannot seem to get a firm grip.

She tries to throw her arms around the horse's neck, but she slides down the side of the horse anyway.

The horse gallops along, seemingly impervious to its slipping rider.

Finally, giving up her frail grip, she leaps away from the horse to try and throw herself to safety.

Unfortunately, her foot has become entangled in the stirrup and she is now at the mercy of the horse's pounding hooves as her head is struck against the ground again and again.

As her head is battered against the ground, she is mere moments away from unconsciousness when to her great fortune...

...the Wal-Mart manager runs out and unplugs the horse.

Painting

Julie, the blonde, was getting pretty desperate for money. She decided to go to the nicer, richer neighborhoods around town and look for odd jobs as a handy woman.

The first house she came to, a man answered the door and told Julie, "Yeah, I have a job for you. How would you like to paint the porch?"

"Sure that sounds great!" said Julie. "Well, how much do you want me to pay you?" asked the man. "Is fifty bucks all right?" Julie asked.

"Yeah, great. You'll find the paint and ladders you'll need in the garage." The man went back into his house to his wife who had been listening. "Fifty bucks! Does she know the porch goes all the way around the house?" asked the wife. "Well, she must, she was standing right on it!" her husband replied.

About 45 minutes later, Julie knocked on the door. "I'm all finished," she told the surprised homeowner.

The man was amazed. "You painted the whole porch?"

"Yeah," Julie replied. "I even had some paint left, so I put on two coats!" The man reached into his wallet to pay Julie.

"Oh, and by the way," said Julie, "that's not a Porch, it's a Ferrari."

SPEEDING TICKET

A police officer stops a blonde for speeding and asks her very nicely if he could see her license.

She replied in a huff, "I wish you guys would get your act together. Just yesterday you take away my license, and then today you expect me to show it to you!"

EXPOSURE

A blonde is walking down the street with her blouse open and her right breast hanging out.

A policeman approaches her and says, "Ma'am, are you aware that I could cite you for indecent exposure?"

She asks, "Why officer?" "Because your breast is hanging out," he says. She looks down and says, "OH MY GOSH, I left the baby on the bus again!"

RIVER WALK

There's this blonde out for a walk. She comes to a river and sees another blonde on the opposite bank. "Yoo-hoo!" she shouts, "How can I get to the other side?"

The second blonde looks up the river, then down the river and shouts back, "You ARE on the other side!"

KNITTING

A highway patrolman pulled alongside a speeding car on the freeway. Glancing at the car, he was astounded to see that the blonde behind the wheel was knitting! Realizing that she was oblivious to his flashing lights and siren, the trooper cranked down his window, turned on his bullhorn and yelled, "PULL OVER!" "NO!", the blonde yelled back, "IT'S A SCARF!"

BLONDE ON THE SUN

A Russian, an American, and a Blonde were talking one day. The Russian said, "We were the first in space!" The American said, "We were the first on the moon!" The Blonde said, "So what? We're going to be the first on the sun!" The Russian and the American looked at each other and shook their heads. "You can't land on the sun, you idiot! You'll burn up!", said the Russian. To which the Blonde replied, "We're not stupid, you know. We're going at night!"

IN A VACUUM

A blonde was playing Trivial Pursuit one night. It was her turn. She rolled the dice and she landed on Science & Nature. Her question was, "If you are in a vacuum and someone calls your name, can you hear it?" She thought for a time and then asked, "Is it on or off?"

FINAL EXAM

The blonde reported for her university final examination that consists of yes/no type questions.

She takes her seat in the examination hall, stares at the question paper for five minutes and then, in a fit of inspiration, takes out her purse, removes a coin and starts tossing the coin, marking the answers after each toss.

Within half an hour she is all done, whereas the rest of the class is still sweating it out. During the last few minutes, she is seen desperately throwing the coin, muttering and sweating.

The moderator, alarmed, approaches her and asks what is going on. "I finished the exam in half an hour, but now I'm rechecking my answers."

FINALLY, THE BLONDE JOKE TO END ALL BLONDE JOKES

A girl was visiting her blonde friend, who had acquired two new dogs, and asked her what their names were. The blonde responded by saying that one was named "Rolex" and one was named "Timex". Her friend said "Whoever heard of someone naming dogs like that?" "HellOOO," answered the blond. "They're watch dogs!"

MEN are like:

Men are like..... Placemats. They only show up when there's food on the table.

Men are like..... Mascara. They usually run at the first sign of emotion.

Men are like..... Bike helmets. Handy in an emergency, but otherwise they just look silly.

Men are like..... Government bonds. They take so long to mature.

Men are like..... Copiers. You need them for reproduction, but that's about it.

Men are like..... Lava lamps. Fun to look at, but not all that bright.

Men are like..... Bank accounts. Without a lot of money, they don't generate much interest.

Men are like..... High heels. They're easy to walk on once you get the hang of it.

Men are like..... Curling irons. They're always hot, and they're always in your hair.

Why Worry?

There are only two things in life to worry about:
Whether you are well or whether you are sick.

If you are well,
then there is nothing to worry about.

But if you are sick,
there are only two things to worry about:
Whether you are going to get well or whether you are going to die.

If you get well,
then there is nothing to worry about.

But if you die,
there are only two things to worry about:
Whether you are going to go to heaven or whether you are going to go to hell.

If you go to heaven,
then you have nothing to worry about.

But if you go to hell,
you'll be so busy shaking hands with all your friends,
that you won't have time to worry!

So, Why Worry?
Be Happy

An elderly man in Adelaide calls his son in Sydney And says, "I hate to ruin your day, but I have to tell you that your mother and I are divorcing... forty-five years of misery is enough."

Pop, what are you talking about?" the son screams.
"We can't stand the sight of each other any longer," the old man says.
"We're sick of each other, and I'm sick of talking about this, so you call your sister in Brisbane and tell her," and he hangs up.

Frantic, the son calls his sister, who explodes on the phone. "Like heck they're getting divorced," she shouts, "I'll take care of this."

She calls her dad immediately, and screams at the old man, "You are NOT getting divorced! Don't do a single thing until I get there. I'm calling my brother back, and we'll both be there tomorrow. Until then, don't do a thing, DO YOU HEAR ME?" and then hangs up.

The old man hangs up his phone and turns to his wife... "Okay," he says, "They're coming for Christmas and paying their own airfares."

A guy walks into the local Centrelink office, marches straight up to the counter and says, "Hi! I hate being on the dole. I'd really rather have a job."

The clerk behind the Centrelink desk says, "Your timing is excellent. We just got a job opening from a very wealthy old man who wants a chauffeur/bodyguard for his nymphomaniac daughter. You'll have to drive around in his Mercedes, but he'll supply all of your clothes.

Because of the long hours, meals will be provided. You'll be expected to escort her on her overseas holiday trips. You'll have a two-bedroom apartment above the garage. The starting salary is $200,000 a year".

The guy says, "You're kidding me!"

The Centrelink officer says, "Yeah, well, you started it".

A nice young worker from the Post Office, was sorting through her regular envelopes, when she discovered a letter addressed as follows:

GOD
c/o Heaven

Upon opening the envelope, a letter enclosed told of how a little old lady, who had never asked for anything in her life, was desperately in need of $100 and was wondering if God could send her the money.

Well the young lady was deeply touched and arranged a collection from her fellow workmates. She collected $90 and sent it off to the old lady.

A few weeks later another letter arrived addressed to God, so the young lady opened it and it read

"Dear God, Thank you for the money, I deeply appreciate it, however I only received $90. It must have been those bs at the Post Office."

A blonde female Police Officer pulled over a blonde woman for speeding.

The blonde cop approached the car and asked the blonde for her driver's license.

The blonde driver asked, "What does a driver's license look like?" as she searched through her purse.

The blonde cop said, "It's a little thing with your picture on it." The driver pulled out her powder compact, opened it, looked in the mirror and handed it to the officer. The blonde cop looked in the mirror, handed it back to the blonde and said, "If you'd told me you were a police officer, we could have avoided all this."

A blind man enters an all woman bar by mistake. He finds his way to a bar stool, and orders a drink.

After sitting there for a while, he yells to the bartender in a loud voice, "Hey bartender, you wanna hear a dumb blonde joke?"

The bar immediately falls deathly quiet. In a very deep husky voice the woman next to him says, "Before you tell that joke, sir, I think it is only fair, given that you are blind, that you should know five things...."

1. The bartender is a blonde woman
2. The bouncer is a blonde woman

I had to explain to her that a person's nose and ear remain the same distance apart no matter which way the head is turned.

I couldn't find my luggage at the airport baggage area. So I went to the lost luggage office and told the woman there that my bags never showed up.

She smiled and told me not to worry because they were trained professionals and I was in good hands.

"Now," she asked me, "has your plane arrived yet?"

I was having trouble with my computer, so I called the computer guy over to my desk. He clicked a couple buttons and solved the problem.

As he was walking away, I called after him, "So, what was wrong?"

He replied, "It was an ID Ten T Error."

A puzzled expression ran over my face. "An ID Ten T Error, what's that, in case I need to fix it again?"

He gave me a grin. "Haven't you ever heard of an ID Ten T Error before?"

"No", I replied.

"Write it down", he said, "and I think you'll figure it out."

An explorer in the deepest Amazon suddenly found himself surrounded by a bloodthirsty group of natives.

Upon surveying the situation, he said quietly to himself, "Oh God, I'm screw-ed."

A ray of light fell from the sky and a voice boomed out, "No, you are not screw-ed. Pick up that stone at your feet and bash in the head of the chief standing in front of you."

So the explorer picked up the stone and proceeded to bash the life out of the chief. He stood above the lifeless body, breathing heavily, surrounded by 100 natives with looks of shock on their faces.

The voice boomed out again, "Okay, NOW you're screw-ed."

From the Sydney Morning Herald Australia comes this story of a central west couple who drove their car to K-Mart only to have their car break down in the parking lot.

The man told his wife to carry on with the shopping while he fixed the car there in the parking lot.

The wife returned later to see a small group of people near the car. On closer inspection she saw a pair of male legs protruding from under the chassis.

Although the man was in shorts, his lack of underpants turned private parts into glaringly public ones.

Unable to stand the embarrassment she dutifully stepped forward, quickly put her hand UP his shorts and tucked everything back into place.

On regaining her feet she looked across the hood and found herself staring at her husband who was standing idly by.

The mechanic, however, had to have three stitches in his head.

The mother said, "The bigger they are, the dumber they are." So the boy went back to play. Minutes later the boy returned and said, "Mommy, I saw men with willies a lot bigger than daddy's."

The mother said the same thing, "The bigger they are, the dumber they are."

So the boy went back to play. Several minutes later the boy ran back to his mother and said,

HOW TO TELL A JOKE:

Hopefully when you have rolled out the punch line of a joke, everyone will be rolling on the floor or at least showing some appreciation.

Telling a joke is a combination of – the material, the person you are telling it to, the timing of the moment you tell the joke, and how well you present the actual joke.

How do you know if the joke is any good? It will make you laugh. If it doesn't make you laugh, forget it.

When you find some good jokes try them out on friends first, because they will let you know if the joke is any good or not.

It's probably best timing to tell your joke when you are in general conversation, with people you are comfortable with. A joke can brighten up a dull conversation or awkward silence. Try to be sober at the time.

A key to telling a joke well is how you 'set the stage' for it. Don't build up too much pressure or high expectation before hand, just launch right into it "This Blonde was....." or make it sound like an event that actually happened to you "I was talking to this woman the other day....."

Speak with confidence, don't mumble or be embarrassed, take your time and relish the punch line.

So collect your jokes, practice them by yourself to get the story and timing right, and then practice them on your friends. When you get good results from the jokes you know you are ready to launch yourself on the rest of the world, and weave the magic of humor into your conversation, for a brighter more cheerful world.

<http://find.sitesell.com/strategic4.html>

- o For The Aspiring Infopreneur... InfoPublishing
Build an online business based upon what you know (from work experience, hobbies, passions, or past-times). If you know your subject matter, and if you're motivated to build a REAL business with growing, diversified revenues...

Finally, the promise of affiliate marketing is realized.
Publish a theme-based information-jammed content site.
Monetize with the cream of affiliate programs, blend in additional AdSense and other revenues. Finally...
Build an affiliate site that WORKS. Diversify as you grow.

<http://affiliatemarketing.sitesell.com/strategic4.html>

- o Network Marketers
Network Marketing starts with recruiting/lead generation.
Generating leads is "made for the Net." But that's not the way matters have unfolded. Why? Because everyone in the industry has tried to force offline methods, online.
There's no need to push (i.e., chase cold calls/prospects) when you can motivate them to pull (i.e., they call you).

<http://networkmarketing.sitesell.com/strategic4.html>

- o Online Auction Sellers
Encourage auction sellers to free themselves of eBay dependency.
The "Big 3" will do it --> #1) Own #2) Diversify #3) Build equity.
Now auction sellers can build REAL businesses that THEY own.

<http://auctions.sitesell.com/strategic4.html>

- o For LOCAL Businesses with LOCAL Clients
There are tens of millions of small local businesses not yet online.
Those who ARE online? They die deaths of quiet, no-traffic desperation.
Show them how to build a Web site that WORKS...
One that delivers 100 times the benefits of a Yellow Pages ad,
At one tenth of the cost.

<http://localbiz.sitesell.com/strategic4.html>

- o For Those Selling a Service... or Could Be!
It's *THE* Most Overlooked Opportunity on the Net.
Build an evergrowing client base until you can say...
"I'm sorry... I'm not taking new clients."

An SBI!-built Theme-Based Content Site is perfect because every service revolves around a theme.

<http://service-selling.sitesell.com/strategic4.html>

- o Referrers/Finders
Get paid a referrer or finder's fee by an offline business for finding a customer (or a "lead") for it. This monetization model is as classic as business itself.
The Net, though, makes it far more cost-effective.

<http://findersfee.sitesell.com/strategic4.html>

- o Selling Hard Goods

Thinking about selling products online? Maybe you already are, but want to do better... much better? If so...

Year by year, both retailers and shoppers are moving ever more online.

It's the low risk, easy, efficient way to sell. And, for shoppers, it's the ideal way to buy (fast, convenient, reliable, endless variety, cheap).

So why do 98% of small business online retailers fail? And why is this little-known, disastrous "98%-fail" statistic good news for YOUR audience?

- o Selling E-goods

E-books (especially non-fiction "how to"), e-photos (booming!) scans, niche software, etc. The whole "digital goods for sale" space is soaring.

--> Anything can be digitized -- sell it.

o SpamCheck Report

Now your readers can stay out of the "Junk Mail Folder."
Just direct them to check their newsletter for "spamminess" by sending it to YOUR unique spamcheck e-mail address...

spamcheck-strategic4@sitesell.net

... and we'll send back a full SpamCheck Report in seconds.
Make sure "TEST" (all capital letters, without the quotes) starts the subject line or we'll ignore it (we consider all e-mails to this address without "TEST" as being spam).

Use SpamCheck Build It! (you'll find that in the QUICK JUMP Drop-Down Menu in the 5P Club) -- it will create some great copy for you, as well as your HTML with your RR URL.
